Terms and Conditions

Introduction

C1net (<http://www.c1net.co.uk/>) has funds available for summer studentships to fund undergraduate students who wish to gain experience in the field of C1 gas fermentation research. The student must be paid by the host institution during the course of the project, as appropriate and as agreed with the student. Funding will be provided in arrears at 80% FEC. Any additional costs associated with the project must be met by the organisation of the awardee. Maximum award £2500 at FEC, £2000 at 80%.
