

IB Skills Conference, May 2016

Free NiBB sponsored IB Skills conference and workshop 'for early career people'

Dates	18 - 19 th May, 2016
Timings	Start: 10.00am On 18 th May Finish: 4.00pm on 19 th May
Venue	Manchester MacDonald Hotel, London Road, Manchester M1 2PG.
Delegates	Eligible for PhD students, post-doctoral researchers and early career industry researchers

This event will feature career-development workshops and activities, as well as sessions from individuals in academia & industry highlighting various career paths and opportunities including many outside the lab.

- Find out about current job & career opportunities in industry
- Reflect on your career to date and identify skill gaps
- Learn about communicating science and creating Impact
- Get tips on how to write funding applications and business cases
- Find out about the latest science and training opportunities available to you
- Industrial Speakers and Panel members will include speakers from Innovate & KTN

Members of the 8 participating Networks are eligible for this free course, please apply via the NiBB Manager

