

INVITATION CIRCULAR ECONOMY NOW

11.07.2018 9:00am

The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

C1net is delighted to invite you to Circular Economy Now.

Interested in finding out more about the opportunities and technologies available to accelerate the circular economy in the UK in a post-Brexit world? If so, then this is the event for you!

We will be joined by a prestigious line-up of speakers from across industry and government who will present on and debate the key themes of resources, technology/conversions and markets. Don't miss out! Register to secure your place today. Places are limited, so apply now to avoid disappointment.
